Gregg Jones goes two-for-two at Needmore in RockAuto.com USCS Mini Sprint Action

In the RockAuto.com USCS 600 Mini Sprint action, Gregg Jones of Navarre, FL has found Needmore Speedway to his liking. Jones started the evening where he left off on Friday night, in Victory Lane after winning the six-lap USCS 600 Hoosier Speed Dash, and returned to that piece of real estate to end the evening after a wire-to-wire win in the 20-lap main event, his second in as many night

Robby Hoffman of Lithia, FL finished second, and John Craddock of Orlando, FL took the third spot with each driver repeating their finishes from Friday night. Bobby Zaiontz of Columbus, MS drove to a fourth-place finish and fifth went to the Wilwood Disc Brakes Hard Charger of the Race Dirk Miller of Sanford, FL, who started eighth.

David Hall of Casselberry, FL finished sixth and A.J. Parrish of Jacksonville, FL took the seventh spot. Jim McNulty of Navarre, FL was eighth, ninth went to Trynt Lloyd of Jacksonville, FL, and the series 2016 Rookie of the Year, Conner Morrell of Palmetto, FL rounded out the top ten. In preliminary action, Hoffman won the Engler Machine and Tool eight-lap Heat Race.
