

Crawley charges to Round #2 USCS Sprint Speedweek win at Jackson Motor Speedway

Byram, MS – May 27, 2017

– The 2012 United Sprint Car Serie presented K&N Filters National Champion, Tim Crawley from Benton, AR raced from the K&N Filters Pole Position into the www.RockAuto.com USCS Victory Lane on Saturday night in the USCS Sprint Speedweek Round #2 event at Jackson Motor Speedway. It was Crawley’s first USCS win of the season after finishing in the runner-up spot in the Speedweek opener at Hattiesburg Speedway on Friday night.

The 2013 USCS Champion, Derek Hagar from Marion, AR chased Crawley across the finish line in the runner-up spot. Gary Taylor from Indianapolis, IN collected the K&N Filters Podium Award for third place. USCS Southern Thunder regional series points leader Jordon Mallett from Greenbrier, AR followed in fourth place and Dale Howard from Byhalia, MS rounded out the top five drivers.

Marshall Skinner also from Marion, AR led the next group in sixth place after winning the Speedweek opener on Friday night. Defending and two-time series Champion, Morgan Turpen from Cordova, TN followed in seventh place. Millington, TN veteran USCS racer Anthony Nicholson was eighth followed by Andy McEhannon from Hernando, MS in ninth. The 11-time USCS National Champ Terry Gray from Bartlett, TN completed the top ten.

Tim Crawley kicked off the evening USCS action by winning the Hoosier Speed Dash. USCS heat race winners were Gary Taylor n the Engler Machine and Tool First Heat, Jordon Mallett in the Brown and Miller Racing Solutions Second Heat, Derek Hagar in the Butlerbuilt Third Heat and Bartlett, Tennessee’s Ernie Ainsworth in the Schoenfeld Headers Fourth Heat race.

Marshall Skinner and Jeremy Middleton from North Little Rock, AR were the winners of the two 12-lap B-Main events. Skinner then passed nine cars in the A-Main to earn the Wilwood Disc Brakes Hard Charger Award.
