

Shane Morgan races to career-first USCS Outlaw Thunder Tour win at Jackson

Jackson, MS – May 26, 2018 – Shane Morgan from Biloxi, Mississippi charged past early race-leader and K&N Filters Pole Position starter Dale Howard from Byhalia, Mississippi into the lead after a re-start following a caution for a spun car. From that point Morgan held off hard charging Marshall Skinner from Marion, Arkansas for a career-first United Sprint Car Series win in the USCS Sprint Car Speedweek Round #2 event at Jackson Motor Speedway on Saturday night.

Before Morgan parked his car in the www.RockAuto.com USCS Victory Lane he had to endure a green-white-checker finish at the end after a caution for another spinning car that brought out the second caution of the race. With Marshall Skinner line up on is rear bumper, and veteran Hall of Famer Danny Smith from Chillicothe, Ohio in third place in the order, Dale Howard and two-time USCS National Champion Morgan Turpen from Cordova, Tennessee behind him for the re-start, Morgan He then charged the final two laps to the finish line.

Skinner kept the runner-up position followed by Smith in the K&N Filters Podium Award third place. Turpen got past Dale Howard for fourth place and Howard rounded out the top five. Eleven-time USCS Champion, Terry Gray from Bartlett, Tennessee was sixth followed by the defending series Champion, Jordon Mallett from Greenbrier, Arkansas in seventh. Jake Knight from Georgetown, Mississippi followed in eighth place. The 2012 USCS Rookie of the Year, Jeff Willingham from Ripley, Mississippi was ninth and Ronny Howard from Nesbit, Mississippi completed the top ten finishers.

Morgan Turpen kicked off the evenings action by winning both the USCS Hoosier Speed Dash for the USCS Mid-South regional series and the USCS Deep South regional series dash as well . Marshall Skinner won the Engler Machine and Tool First Heat. Danny Smith got the victory in the Brown and Miller Racing Solutions Second Heat Race. Ronny Howard garnered the evening’s Wilwood Disc Brakes Hard Charger Award. Dale Howard collected the K&N Filters Pole Award. Morgan urpen was the FireAde high-points earner after the qualifying heat races.
