

USCS Winter Heat expands to 10 races in 2019 starts 1/25/19

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: USCS Outlaw Thunder Tour "Winter Heat" Series presented by FireAde expands to 10 races for 2019 starting January 25th.

Atlanta, GA – December 1, 2018 - The United Sprint Car Series Outlaw Thunder Tour presented by K&N Filters winged sprint cars are set to kick off their 2019 and 23rd racing season with the 2nd annual USCS Winter Heat Series that consists of ten races at six different venues in three Southern states from Friday, January 25th through Saturday, March 9th. The mini-series will include stops at four tracks that return from the 2018 inaugural Winter Heat Series schedule of six races. This season the USCS Winter Heat schedule expands on each end with two new venues for the USCS.

The USCS 2019 sprint car season opener and the USCS Winter Heat Rounds #1 and #2 take the green at Hendry County Motorsports Park in Clewiston Florida for two full nights of winged sprint action at the farthest South venue the series has ever stopped at on Friday and Saturday, January 25th and 26th. After a weekend off, the cars and stars of the USCS Outlaw Thunder Tour presented by K&N Filters fire back into action at the friendly confines of Bubba Raceway Park in Ocala, Florida with two big nights of action on Friday and Saturday, February 8th and 9th in Winter Heat Rounds #3 and #4. The USCS sprint cars join the USAC National Midgets as co-headliners of the second weekend of the Bubba Army Winter Nationals.

The USCS Winter Heat driver/team contingent then moves farther North and West into the Florida Panhandle to Southern Raceway in Milton, Florida on Friday and Saturday, February 22nd and 23rd for Rounds #5 and #6 of the 2019 USCS Winter Heat 10-race mini-series. The USCS winged sprint cars headline the two-night weekend of racing action entitled the 2nd Annual USCS "Battle at the Beach" at the high-banked one-third mile clay oval track. The events will also be race #5 and #6 on the 60-event 23rd season schedule for the series.

On the following weekend racers and fans alike can follow the USCS Outlaw Thunder Tour presented by K&N Filters North and West again into the state of Mississippi to two of the series favorite venues. On Friday, March 1st the series competes in the USCS Winter Heat Series Round #7 at Hattiesburg Speedway in Hattiesburg, Mississippi as headliners of the 2nd annual Hub City 100 event. On the second night in the state of Mississippi, the series invades the 3/8-mile Magnolia Motor Speedway for the 11th Annual Frostbuster 150 season-opener to compete on the Black Ice surface of "The Mag".

The final weekend of the 2019 USCS Winter Heat Series presented by FireAde sends the United Sprint Car Series to the 1/3 mile oval at Chatham Speedway in Chatham, Louisiana for Winter Heat Rounds #9 and #10 on the final two nights of USCS Outlaw Thunder Tour 10-race Winter Heat mini-series featuring a full racing program of winged sprint car racing action on Friday and Saturday, March 8th and 9th.

The 2nd Annual USCS Winter Heat Series events are expected to draw some of the top 360 winged-sprint car drivers from across the Nation from at least ten states and Canada seeking warmer climates for the earliest winged 360 sprint car racing of the 2019 season. The USCS Winter Heat Series presented by FireAde events offers a full month of racing opportunities for 360 cubic inch winged sprint car teams.

The

United Sprint Car Series Winter Heat portion of the 10 events will give drivers an opportunity to pick up their share of the over $120,000 in posted cash prize winnings plus contingency awards during the mini-series schedule. Each event will give a driver who can sweep the weekend's elements over $4,000 in cash plus contingencies including a win in Friday night's preliminary USCS sprint car main event and by also arriving first in the www.rockauto.com USCS Victory Lane after Saturday night's Championship final at each track as well.

Fans

attending the USCS Winter Heat Series events will be treated to a full program of USCS Outlaw Thunder Tour presented by K&N Filters winged sprint car racing each night plus support divisions for an action-packed evening. Please stay tuned for the full details for the 10 events over the next couple of weeks. For USCS Sprint Car rules and schedule information, please, visit the USCS series Official website located at www.uscsracing.com

You may also find current info at the USCS Racing Facebook page. Please also please like our page if you haven't already.

The USCS phone number is 770-865-6097.

USCS

Media contact: Pete Walton 770-865-6097 and email: peteuscs@att.net